

Best Injury™ Practice Standards for Designated Healthcare Practitioners

Best Injury Practices, Inc.

Last Revised: December 28, 2017 | Version 1.21

1. I will commit to objectively and/or corroboratively documenting my patients' conditions, objectively and/or corroboratively documenting the issue of causation with a view towards apportioning my patients' conditions, and objectively and/or corroboratively documenting treatment effectiveness, as reasonably applicable;
2. My commitment to document in an objective and/or corroborative manner shall at all times be impartial, and shall be conducted not for purposes of "increasing claim value" or enhancing the practice of law, but rather shall be conducted strictly for the purposes of facilitating more accurate medical evaluation, as reasonably applicable.
3. I will commit to providing, facilitating, and/or otherwise coordinating with the provision of, active forms of care including the instruction of my patients in home-based care, as reasonably applicable;
4. I will commit to providing, facilitating, and/or otherwise coordinating with the provision of, evidenced-based preventative care, as reasonably applicable;
5. I will commit to making my fees consistent with that which is usual, customary, and reasonable in my area, commensurate with my particular skills and expertise, as reasonably applicable;
6. In the event that I elect to utilize assignments, liens, and other means of securing my interests, I will do so principally for the purposes of ensuring transparency, accountability, and disclosure in the processing of claims and handling of funds, as reasonably applicable;
7. I will abide by federal and state laws applicable to my practice.
